

Commanderie de Bordeaux
Hong Kong Chapter

17th November 2009

Dear Commandeurs,

The most important dinner of the year is approaching. Our Annual Dinner will be held at the Grand Hyatt on Friday, 4th December 2009 at the Salons with our usual annual induction. For this evening, we will feature the wine of Chateau Pichon Lalande 2003 and 1998, Chateau Bernadotte 1999 and Reserve de la Comtesse 2004. In addition, we will serve a surprise vintage of Crystal, not for our champagne reception (as this is rather rare), but for dessert.

Hopefully, we will have our friend Gildas d'Ollone coming to Hong Kong but he has told me that his mother has been very ill so he may not be able to come at the last moment.

Chateau Pichon Lalande does not need too much of an introduction except that they are making better and better wine since the Roederer Champagne House bought the chateau. The new owner has put a lot of money into improving their char and their drainage system and I am sure you will find that their recent vintages have much improved and even from their classic vintage.

The cost of the dinner will be HK$1,380.00 for member and HK$1,500.00 for non members and guests. I would like to mention that a lot of you have already booked your places well before hand so there are only very few places left. This will be our only black tie dinner for the year and we have been promised plenty of Chateau Pichon to drink and I hope you can come and enjoy this magnificent event.

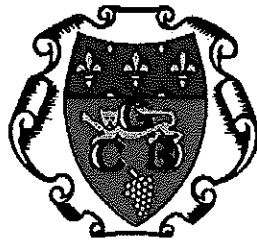

Bordeaux, Toujours Bordeaux!

Yours sincerely
