

Commanderie de Bordeaux
Hong Kong Chapter

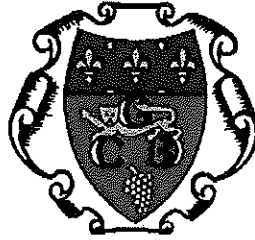

12h February 2010

Dear Commandeurs,

Our next events will be on the 4th and 6th March 2010 with two super classified growths coming to Hong Kong.

The first dinner on the 4th March 2010 will be a Chateau Lynch Bages dinner on Thursday, 4th March 2010 at The Hong Kong Club, Hennessy Road. The second generation owner of Chateau Lynch Bages, Jean-Charles Cazes will be coming to Hong Kong to tutor the tasting. Jean-Charles is the eldest son of Jean Michel Cazes. We are going to have Blanc de Lynch-Bages 2007, Domaine des Sénéchaux 2006, Ormes de Pez 2003, Chateau Lynch Bages 2001 and 1996. We will also have, for reception, Villa Bel Air- red, Villa Bel Air-white and Ostal Cazes Estibals. The dinner will be in aid of the exchange programme of the Lan Chi Pat Secondary School in Hong Kong and the Pauillac Primary School. Two years ago, we raised 100,000 Euro on this occasion and we have so far had a total of 80 students travelling from Hong Kong to Pauillac and 80 students from Pauillac to Hong Kong for 4 weeks in order to give the students of both countries a chance to get a wilder international experience when they are young. It has benefited all the students tremendously. Jean-Michel Cazes has given some very rare bottles for auction in support of such exchange programme. I hope you can all come and at least enjoy the wine and if possible support this honourable course.

The second dinner will be with Chateau Angelus on Saturday, 6th March 2010 at Chatham Room, Level 7, Conrad Hong Kong with our friend Hubert coming to Hong Kong to tutor the tasting. He will bring with him La Fleur de Bouard 2005, Bellevue 2004, Chateau Angelus 2003, 1998 and 1996 in magnum.

Hubert, again, does not need introduction. He has now resigned as the Premier Jruade of Saint-Emilion and has been appointed as the President of the Council of Saint-Emilion Appellation Contrôlée. He is one of the most influential wine makers in Bordeaux.

As the two events are so close together, I am happy to offer to our members $2,280 for both dinners and $2,500 for guests. However, if you want to come to any one of the dinners, the costs of each diner will be $1,500 for members and $1,600 for guests. Both dinners will of course include our usual champagne reception.

Bordeaux, Toujours Bordeaux!

Yours sincerely

Vincent T.K. Cheung, LL.B.
Grand Maître of Asia
