

Commanderie de Bordeaux
Hong Kong Chapter

19th November 2010

Dear Commandeurs,

We are approaching our Christmas events and I am pleased to say that Nicolas Glumineau, the wine maker of Chateau Montrose will be coming to Hong Kong to tutor the tasting of Chateau Montrose on Saturday, 4th December 2010. We will have our dinner at the Grand Hyatt. We are having the Grand Hyatt again at the request of most of our members who came to our Chateau Phelan Segur dinner, as they all enjoyed the food and service on that occasion.

Chateau Montrose, being a 2nd growth, is one of the two best St. Estéphe in Bordeaux. It has great terroir as it is next to the river. In addition to their reputation in creating extremely good vintage almost every year, they have also recruited Jean Bernard Demas, who was the wine maker of Chateau Haut Brion for almost 40 years, to be their consultant. Chateau Montrose is very difficult to obtain as it has a small production. This is their first time to have a tasting dinner in Hong Kong with the Commanderie.

We are privileged to have, for tasting, Chateau Montrose 2007, 2008 and 2009 and for dinner, Chateau Montrose 2000, 1996, 1986 and 1975. It will be a fantastic vertical tasting.

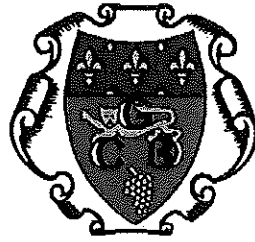

The dinner will be held at The Lounge, The Grand Hyatt Hong Kong. The cost of the dinner, including our usual champagne reception, will be HK$1,850.00 for members and HK$1,950.00 for guests. Tasting will begin at 7:00 p.m.

Hope you can come and enjoy with us. Even before I write this letter, may of you have already reserved their places. I will urge you to confirm your seats as soon as possible

Bordeaux, Toujours Bordeaux!

Yours sincerely
